RE: Request for Certificate of Correction

Patent No. 6,194,191

Dated: February 27, 2001

Entitled: "AN IMPROVED METHOD FOR THE PRODUCTION AND PURIFICATION OF ADENOVIRAL VECTORS"

Inventor(s): Shuyuan Zhang, Capucine Thwin, Zheng Wu, Toohyon Cho

APPROVED

APR 17 2003 af

Commissioner:

Enclosed are copies of the Certificate of Correction issued in this case on December 17, 2002. Minor errors of a clerical nature are thereon corrected by being lined through in red ink. The errors corrected are Applicants. Accordingly, a check in the amount of $100.00 is being submitted herewith.

The instant correction was necessary because Applicants had previously inadvertently requested a Certificate of Correction to make amendments to the claims that were not entered in the case. The instant request eliminates the clerical error by deleting these changes. This request is intended to supercede all previous Certificates of Correction and to void the request for Certificate of Correction mailed in the case on December 12, 2002.
